

October 2010 Newsletter

Technical Website Design
Newsletter

If you are receiving this message, it means that I have done work for you in the past, I am doing work for you now, or you have expressed interest regarding me doing work for you in the future. If you would prefer to not receive further emails, please let me know about it.

Being that it is October, I will be sending out invoices to any of you for whom I have done work in September, or for those who have not yet paid for previous months.

News & Info

Health Watch – I almost feel guilty talking about my situation. All I have to show for it are three tiny marks where they did their poking into my wrist. Unfortunately, when the doctor did go in to take a view, apparently there was more work to be done than what he originally could see from the x-rays and MRI. I really hoped I would be further along than I am, but I think I am close to back to “normal”.

Meanwhile, Leila is moving along with her recovery. It is an ongoing situation for her and it will be several months before she can claim normalcy. Thanks again to all for your good wishes.

Google SEO – I would prefer to keep my typing to a minimum, so this month I am going to let Google do my work for me. For those of you interested in Search Engine Optimization, I found a PDF SEO Starter Guide that Google created, so I uploaded it to my personal space and you can browse it and/or save it for yourself.

Clients & Affiliates

(In this section, those of you who would like to can place ads, tips, references, etc. If you have something you would like to submit, please email me and I will get it in the next newsletter.)

Search Engine Placement – For most people, getting on the first page of the search engines is the goal. There is another company here in San Diego that has been a leader in internet marketing strategies and search engine optimization services for over eight years. Go to www.topimresults.com and you can, at the very least, get a free Website Marketing Analysis and a free Position Rank Report.
